RORKE'S DRIFT REPEATED AT TOURNAI

KONIGSBERG IS NOW RUSSIA'S FORTRESS

Advance of Czar's Troops in Prussia and Galicia Continues Steadily

ALLENSTEIN IS TAKEN GERMANS ARE ROUTED

In Galicia Austrians Are Held on Battlefront Two Hundred Miles Long

London, Aug. 29.—A dispatch to the Times from St. Petersburg says that reports are circulating there of the fall of Königsberg, the strongly fortified seaport of the Germans in East Prussia.

The Russian advance in East Prussia gave rise to three days of prolonged and stubborn engagements in the vicinity of Soldau, Allenstein and Bischofsburg, where the enemy had concentrated their army corps which retreated from Gumbinnen, and some fresh troops, Allenstein has been successfully occupied by the Russians.

The German losses were particularly heavy at Meuhlen, between Osterode and Nordenburg, and the enemy is in full rout.

Russians Are Strong in Galicia.

On the Galician front the fighting had on Wednesday assumed a character of general engagements, developing in the southern districts of Lublin and in Eastern Galicia, on the roads of Lemberg. The front of the battle extended for 200 miles. At first the fighting was more of the character of attack and counter attack, but gradually the Austrians were compelled to assume the defensive.

A Russian foot regiment in a hand-to-hand fight with the Seventh Hungarian reserve, captured their colors and nearly annihilated the enemy.

A dispatch to the Times sent Saturday morning says the Austrians made a bold bid for the offensive yesterday by trying to seize the left flank of the Russian position in Poland with the obvious intention of relieving the pressure on the German forces in Northeastern Prussia.

Two or three army corps advanced as far as Kleve, where they encountered a strong Russian force.

A pitched battle was fought and resulted in the overthrow of the invaders who suffered heavy losses. It was here that the Seventh Hungarian reserve met their fate.

Berlin, Aug. 29.—(By wireless to the Associated Press.)—News of the defeat of five Russian army corps to the south of Allenstein is made public here today. It is regarded as encouraging and as greatly relieving the situation in East Prussia. It is said to insure the flank of the German position.

Alenstein is about 60 miles south of Königsberg.

The Associated Press has been informed from official Austrian sources that the battles which have been in progress for several days past are expected to be decisive. Austrian troops are pursuing the Russians from Krasnik, about 20 miles north of the Galician frontier, in the direction of Lublin.

There is no invading army between the River Bug and the River Wipera. (These rivers are affluents of the Vistula and embrace a territory located to the east of Warsaw.) Austria, according to this authority, has invaded Russia and has occupied the region in front of Zamosze, which is a strongly fortified town of Russian Poland on the Wipera, 45 miles southeast of Lublin.

The Austrians hold the regions of the west, north and southeast of Lemberg, Galicia, and have advanced toward the Lintser river against strong invading forces of the enemy.

Rome, Aug. 29.—The Tribuna publishes a dispatch from St. Petersburg which confirms reports that Russians have invested the fortress at (deleted by censor) where the Germans are shut in. There are now no German armies to interfere with Russian operations in this region.

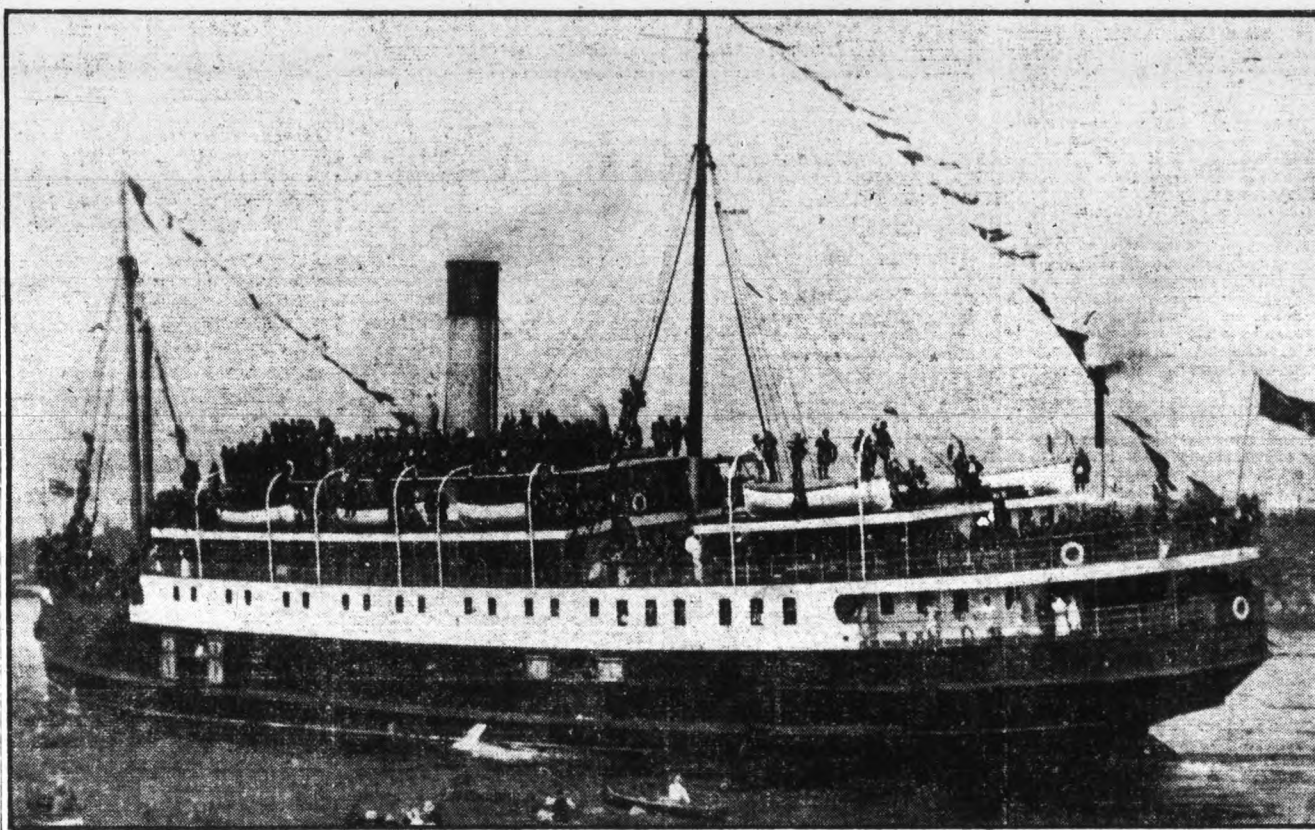

Previous dispatches would indicate that the name omitted is probably the fortress at Königsberg in East Prussia.

London, Aug. 29.—A dispatch to the Reuter Telegram company from Paris says an official communication given out in the French capital confirms previous reports that the Russians have completely invested Königsberg in East Prussia.

GERMANS CROSS RHINE

Rome, Aug. 28.—A dispatch to the Giornale d'Italia from Basel, Switzerland, says that three German army corps, two Austrian army corps and a great quantity of siege artillery have crossed the Rhine.

STEAMSHIP PRINCESS SOPHIA TAKES MEN OF 50TH AND 88TH REGIMENTS

QUARTER MILLION TRIED TO BREAK BRITISH LINE

London, Aug. 29.—Exhaustion on the part of the German troops and the consequent necessity of momentarily slackening their forward march is thought to-day to be the explanation of the silence which has veiled all the operations in Northern France since the desperate struggle on Wednesday, when a quarter of a million of German soldiers tried to hack their way through the British lines held by less than half that number. Others are convinced that the battle which Field Marshal French said on Wednesday was impending is now in progress and that the commanders are awaiting a decisive outcome before permitting anything to become public.

Since last Wednesday both British and French troops have had time to entrench themselves, and their artillery has been able to find the ranges over the zones the Germans must traverse in the next fighting.

A telegram from Basel, Switzerland, declaring that five German and Austrian army corps are marching on Belfort, France, has not been authenticated nor has another report that the Germans have been obliged to withdraw a portion of their force in the west to meet the Russian advance in the east.

The advance movement of the Muscovites in the eastern theatre of the war seems uninterrupted. In Eastern Prussia they have invested Königsberg, while in Galicia they would appear to be drawing the net tighter around Lemberg.

Fired by the news that the native Indian army is coming to participate in the war, the Basutos of South Africa have petitioned that in the event of an attempted invasion of South African territory they be allowed to cast a few stones at the enemy.

NAVAL BATTLE LASTED EIGHT HOURS LITTLE DAMAGE TO BRITISH SHIPS

London, Aug. 29.—The naval engagement between the British and Germans off Heligoland lasted eight hours, during which the fighting was sharp and terrible, according to a dispatch to the Evening News from Harwich. The correspondent says that this description of the fight was given by crews of the British destroyers which took part in the engagement and have arrived at Harwich.

Washington, Aug. 29.—The following official report of the naval battle off Cuxhaven, in which the British fleet was victorious was received today at the British embassy. It was dated last night in London:

"Early this morning a concerted operation of some consequence was attempted against the German fleet off Heligoland Bight. A strong force of destroyers, followed by light cruisers and battle cruisers and working in conjunction with submarines intercepted an attack by German destroyers and cruisers guarding the approaches to the German coast. According to information which has reached the admiralty so far, the operation had been fortunate and fruitful."

The British destroyers have been heavily engaged with the enemy's destroyers and all the British destroyers are reported afterward and are returning in good order. Two German destroyers were sunk and many damaged.

The enemy's cruisers engaged the British cruisers. Battle cruisers of the first light cruiser squadron sank the Mainz, receiving only slight damage. The first battle squadron sank one cruiser of the Kalb class and another disappeared in the mist on fire and in a sinking condition.

"All the German cruisers which were engaged were thus disposed of. The battle cruiser squadron, although attacked by submarines and floating mines, successfully evaded them and was not damaged. The light cruiser squadron suffered no casualties."

"The battle cruiser Amethyst and the destroyer Laertes are damaged, but no other vessels are seriously damaged. The British loss of life was not heavy."

"The commanding officers concerned in the skillfully handled operation were Rear-Admirals Beatty, George and Christian, and Commodore Keys, Tyrwhitt and Goodenough."

ARTILLERY HORSES RIDDEN TO CAPTURE GUNS FROM GERMANS

London, Aug. 29.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Reuter Telegram company recites a daring act credited to Prince Eristoff, a colonel in the Russian horse artillery. When the Germans were retreating from Stallupoenen, a town of East Prussia, the prince ordered his men to unhitch their horses from their own guns, mount them and gallop after the Germans. Under a heavy fire the Russians went forward, captured the German guns and brought them back to their lines.

Emperor Nicholas has conferred the Cross of St. George on Prince Eristoff.

BULLETINS

FIFTY-FOUR PERISH

London, Aug. 29.—A dispatch to Lloyd's from Nikolayev, Russia, says that the small passenger steamer Ekspres, from Odessa for Nikolayev, struck a mine on August 11 and was destroyed. Fifty-four persons perished.

NEW FRENCH ARMY

London, Aug. 29.—According to reports in London, France has formed a new army of a quarter of a million men to take the offensive against the German right. This rumor, however, lacks confirmation.

CRUISER HAS PRISONERS

London, Aug. 29.—A British cruiser arrived in the North to-day with 200 German prisoners on board, chiefly from the German cruiser Mainz, which was sunk by a British fleet in the recent naval engagement off Cuxhaven.

KAISER DIRECTS ARMIES

Geneva, Switzerland, Aug. 29.—Emperor William and the German staff are making both Cologne and Mainz their headquarters, according to intelligence reaching Basel. The emperor is passing continually between the two coast cities personally directing the armies in the fighting in Belgium.

PATRICIA INFANTRY SAILS

Montreal, Aug. 29.—The Princess Patricia Canadian Light Infantry, first troops from Canada to leave for the European war, sailed to-day 1,000 strong, aboard the White Star liner Megantic, amid gala scenes, for a secret destination.

CANADIAN KILLED

Nelson, Aug. 29.—Falling off a train while on the way to Valcartier camp, W. L. Reid, of the Grand Forks Sharpshooters, was killed near Creston today. He was a member of the first Kootenay Boundary contingent of 187 officers and men and was a pioneer of the Kootenay district.

RUSSIANS NEAR LEMBERG

Washington, Aug. 29.—Russian troops are thirty kilometers from Lemberg, and Serbian headquarters has moved forward to Zalcivo, according to daily dispatches to-day to the French embassy. Before Nancy the French troops found 2,500 German dead, and before Vitrimont 4,500 dead.

PANIC AT DANZIG

London, Aug. 29.—A Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says the German steamer Dardak has arrived there from Danzig, Germany. The captain told of a terrible panic there owing to the fear of the Russian invasion. He said the inhabitants were in desperate condition and that there had been fierce rioting. Foreigners and their possessions he said, were ruthlessly misused.

BOULOGNE PREPARES FOR CAVALRY ATTACK

Uhlans Reported to Be Within Thirty Miles of French
Coast City

Paris, Aug. 29.—Train service between Paris and Boulogne was suspended to-day until further notice. It is presumed here that this step was taken because the allied armies are about to engage the Germans on or near the railroad line running into Boulogne.

London, Aug. 29.—The correspondent of the Express at Boulogne wires that preparations are being made there in expectation of a cavalry raid on the town. He says: "The German troops are advancing in North France and Boulogne is making preparations for a cavalry raid. A force was posted in the sub-prefecture and the headquarters of the gendarmes stating that the troops had been withdrawn and calling on the inhabitants to remain calm, preserve order and make any sacrifices necessary for the good of their country."

"I am told the customs officials left Boulogne Friday morning, and that the officials of the civil administration are ready to leave. Since Thursday night the town has been deserted by visitors. Some left by boat and others by land in the direction of Havre and Dieppe. Some of the inhabitants are leaving, but as yet there has been no general exodus. The story is that Uhlans, who may be the vanguard of a large body of cavalry, are within thirty miles of the town."

"The boat which left Boulogne Friday afternoon was filled with people, some of whom were British. The boat was unable to wait for the usual train from Paris, which was held up somewhere along the line. I am told that a number of British wounded are expected by this train."

"Several more wounded British soldiers left Boulogne Friday morning on the early boat for Folkestone. They include one alumnus, whose legs were broken by a shot fired at him while he was in the air."

"The only vessels here are fishing boats. The usual four o'clock boat left Folkestone for Boulogne and up to a late hour at night no announcement had been made that cross-Channel service had been stopped."

KING ALBERT IS WITH HIS TROOPS CONSTANTLY

London, Aug. 29.—According to the Antwerp correspondent of the Daily News, King Albert constantly mingles with his troops, and was in the trenches at the fighting around Malines. He was always at the point of the greatest danger, assisting and encouraging the men. He went among them attired simply as a soldier and his sympathetic conduct had a remarkable effect.

BRITISH DIE HEROES ASSISTING BELGIANS TO RESIST GERMANS

Quick-Firing Guns Mounted on Red Cross
Wagons by Enemy Decide Battle—Two Thousand British Held Trenches Five Days—Thirty Soldiers Survive

London, Aug. 29.—The Daily Mail's Boulogne correspondent, writing of the battle of Tournai says: "The battle of Tournai should go down in British history beside Rorke's Drift and Maggersfontein as a revelation of the prowess of the British army. A German cavalry force of 5,000 men overwhelmed a British force of 700 who hourly expected a relief which never appeared."

"The Germans were victorious at a terrible price and only after their ranks had been sadly thinned. The British stood their ground until hope was lost and only 300 remained. Then they retired, calmly and coolly, carrying their wounded and harassing their pursuers all the way."

The story of this last stand is beclouded by the British charge that the Germans finally turned the tide of battle by mounting quick-firing guns in Red Cross wagons. The British survivors fell back on Wednesday afternoon, the fighting having lasted from 11.30 in the morning. The story of Tournai in brief is:

Promised Help That Did Not Come.

"On Wednesday morning our troops had taken a position slightly to the rear of the town of Tournai, on high ground. The artillery fired effectively at first on the German advance, but later lost the range. Towards 1 o'clock our position became critical. As every vital moment slipped by, anxious eyes looked back for the promised help that was never to come. Even at the terrible disadvantage of more than ten to one, the infantry and artillery were holding their own when hordes of Uhlans suddenly swooped down."

"Throughout the town they galloped with an amazing disregard for themselves and up to the muzzles of our field-guns. Their losses were appalling, but survivors insist that the British stood their ground until ambulances, at least three in number, made their appearance with rapid-fire guns mounted on them. Towards 2 o'clock the 300 survivors began to retire."

The Chronicle's Boulogne correspondent sends the story of a wounded soldier who has arrived there, and who declared he was one of the thirty survivors of a British company of 2,000 troops who were practically wiped out by the German artillery. His story was as follows: "We were five days in the trenches and moved backwards and forwards all that time with the varying tide of battle."

Shrapnel Killed Men by Scores.

"It was about 2 o'clock in the morning when the end came. Things had got quieter and our officers came along the line and told us to get some sleep. We were preparing to obey when a light or something gave us away, and we found ourselves in an inferno of bullets."

"We could do nothing. The shrapnel hailed on us, and we fell by the score. At the same time the enemy's Maxim opened fire. We were almost without shelter when we were caught, and we crawled along in front to find cover."

"Leave everything and retire," was the order, and we did what we could to obey. I don't know how long it lasted, but when dawn came I could see not more than thirty men left in the various sections of the field. Thirty at the most were left out of about 2,000."

German Gunfire Generally Poor.

"I wandered away from the others and eventually found myself at— with a single companion. That was the first time the German artillery really got at us. As a rule their gunfire was mighty poor."

In the foregoing story the censor has eliminated the name of the town near where this fighting occurred.

Germany Acts Contrary to War Laws.

The correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Company at Antwerp sends the following official statement which has been issued there: "On Thursday the Germans, contrary to the laws of war, bombarded Malines, an open and undefended town."

"On Friday morning the town was partially occupied by German infantry, which withdrew toward the south in the afternoon and the bombardment was renewed, four shells falling about each quarter of an hour."

"The enemy also bombarded the region about Heyst Opdenberg a town 17 miles southeast of Antwerp, an open locality not occupied by the military."

"The two operations had no less an object than to terrorize the civilian populations."

LATE NIGHT WAR NEWS

AMBASSADOR DESIRES CENSORSHIP LIFTED

Germany Not at War With Santo Domingo So Count
Went in Washington, Aug. 29.—Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, conferred with Secretary Bryan yesterday on the censorship of the German-owned wireless stations. Secretary Bryan said afterwards that the question was still unsettled.

Fighting on the Russian border, the ambassador said, had been merely clashes of outposts. The country is open and unfortified, he explained, and the towns reported captured by Russians are undefended and unimportant points. No Russian dispatches, the count declared, had mentioned engagements with more than one of the Prussian army corps. In defence of the actions of the Zeppelin airship in dropping bombs into Antwerp, Count von Bernstorff declared that in Germany the presence of women and children in a fortress such as the city of Antwerp was not permitted. Attack on a fortress in modern warfare, he pointed out, may be carried on from the air as well as from the siege guns.

The ambassador said he would not discuss the European struggle. Before he entered the diplomatic ante-room he inquired of a messenger if other diplomats were present. The messenger answered that the minister of Santo Domingo was awaiting him. "Well we are not at war with him," the ambassador remarked. "I can go in."

MARRIAGE VIEWS ARE CHANGING IN JAPAN

Admiral Yashiro Says So After Watching Men of the Navy for Ten Years.

Tokio, Aug. 29.—"The golden age of beautiful women is passing," according to Admiral Yashiro, minister of the navy, who with friendly paternalism has been observing the choice of wives by naval officers.

"For over ten years," he said, "the idea has obtained in the navy that the officers were a kind of diplomat, and that their wives must be pretty and charming. The officers were always looking for pretty, modernized women with a view to marriage."

"Now, however," he observed, "things are changing. The marriageable naval officers of to-day are looking for women who are sober in mind and healthy in body. It is probably due to the object lesson furnished by husbands taxed with pretty but luxurious, vain and uncontrollable wives."

Admiral Yashiro said that although the number of selfish people had increased in Japan, as witness the recent naval bribery affair, he was convinced that the people as a whole would not countenance such conduct and such an attitude toward life. The Japanese would, he thought, return in a great measure to the old principles of loyalty, altruism and patriotism.

THIRTY-TWO THOUSAND GERMANS IN AUSTRALIA

Slightly Fewer Women Than Men in Population of Island Continent.

Meibourne, Aug. 29.—There are 6,642 Germans in Australia, according to a report just made by the official statistician of the Commonwealth.

The Germans on the island continent numbered 32,960, the Chinese 30,775; Scandinavians 14,700; Italians 6,719; and the Japanese 3,474.

The number of Japanese is of interest because of the suspicion often voiced in Australia regarding the Japanese government and people.

The number of women in Australia in proportion to the men was 100 to 140 fifty years ago, but to-day it is 100 to 108.

The rate of natural increase in population is high, being 2.03 per cent., and it appears from the official estimate that the total population of the island continent will soon be five millions.

PARIS ENTRENCHED CAMP PRACTICALLY UNTAKABLE

Paris, Aug. 28.—The defences of Paris are thus described by La Patrie: "Paris, by its situation is the stronghold of the national defence. This city is an entrenched camp protected by three series of works. First there is an inner circle of defences, then a circle of forts and beyond these a second ring of powerful forts destined to prevent the enemy's shells reaching the city. Some of the latter forts are twelve miles from the city."

ASQUITH FINDS TIME TO CONSIDER HOME RULE

London, Aug. 28.—The Manchester Guardian states that negotiations over Irish Home Rule are proceeding now only between Premier Asquith and Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition, as Sir Edward Carson is now outside these conversations. The prime minister, says the Guardian, is not without hope of arriving at a settlement.

PANAMA CANAL DOES NOT PAY ITS EXPENSES

Washington, Aug. 28.—As a direct result of the war in Europe, receipts from the operation of the Panama canal have failed to pay the expenses of the great waterway. Tolls during the first week of traffic in the canal amounted to only about $15,000. That was not enough to pay operating expenses, much less meet the interest payment on the vast capital invested.

ASQUITH WILL SPEAK IN PRINCIPAL CITIES

Reference in House of Lords to Service by Troops From India

London, Aug. 29.—Premier Asquith has decided to address meetings in the principal cities in the United Kingdom to make plain the cause of the war and to set forth that it is the duty of every man to do his part to make the issue a successful one for the British arms. The premier has directed letters to the lord mayors of the various cities with regard to these meetings, in which he says:

"The time has come for a combined effort to institute and organize public opinion and public effort in the greatest conflict in which our people have ever been engaged. No one who can contribute anything to the accomplishment of this supremely urgent task is justified in standing aside."

"I propose, as a first step, that meetings should be held without delay not only in our great centres of population and industry, but in every district, urban and rural, throughout the United Kingdom, at which the justice of our cause should be made plain and the duty of every man to do his part set forth."

"I venture to suggest to your lordships that the four principal cities over which you respectively preside should lead the way. I myself am ready, as far as the exigencies of public duty permit, to give such help as I can, and I should be glad, with that object, to address my fellow subjects in your cities."

"I have reason to know that I can count upon the co-operation of the leaders of every section of organized political opinion."

In the house of lords yesterday Lord Crewe, secretary of state for India, said:

"It has been deeply impressed on the government that the wonderful wave of enthusiasm and loyalty at the present time passing over India is largely due to the desire of the Indian people that Indian soldiers should stand side by side with their comrades in the British army."

"India is aware of the employment of African troops to assist the French army, and it would have been a disappointment to Indians if they had been debarred from taking part in the war in Europe."

"Our army will thus be reinforced by soldiers, high souled men with first-rate training, and I am certain that they will give the best possible account of themselves. I venture to think that this keen desire of our Indian fellow subjects to co-operate with us is not less gratifying than the same desire shown in the self-governing dominions, some of whose soldiers in due course will no doubt also be found fighting side by side with our troops and Indian troops in the war."

"Of course we all know that India does not possess an inexhaustible reserve of troops, and the defence of India must in itself be a primary consideration, not only to India itself, but to us, but I am able to state that so far as external aggression is concerned—of which I hope and believe there is no prospect and I should like to say there is scarcely a possibility—in spite of those heavy drafts on the Indian army, the Indian frontiers will be fully and adequately secured. As regards the risk of internal troubles, I believe that the enthusiasm which pervades all classes and races in India will make anything of the sort altogether impossible."

"That enthusiasm has found vent in many ways, in some cases by gifts of great liberality for the service of the troops in the field. I was told only yesterday by the viceroy of India that he had sent a gift of fifty lacs of rupees (about $245,000) for the use of the troops in the field, and there had been on varying scales a number of offers of the kind."

"I feel confident, therefore, that the action we take will meet with a most enthusiastic reception in India, and I believe it will be approved by your lordships and subsequently by public opinion here generally."

MALINES IS RETAKEN BY FORCE OF NUMBERS

London, Aug. 28.—The Mail's correspondent at Rotterdam sends a telegram from Antwerp, dated Thursday, as follows: "After a magnificent defence of two days by the Belgians, Malines were retaken by the Germans. On the first day 20,000 Germans opposed the Belgians, and on the second day 40,000 flung their might against the inferior forces. In the end the Belgians retired on Antwerp, leaving the enemy in possession of the town. The Germans entrenched after ordering the inhabitants to leave. Wachten and Heindoneik were destroyed by the retreating Belgians to prevent them being used as cover by the enemy in their operations against Antwerp."

BRUSSELS SURROUNDED BY QUICK FIRING GUNS

London, Aug. 28.—The Exchange Telegraph company publishes a dispatch from its Ghent correspondent saying that the Germans have placed a number of quick-firing guns in the outskirts of Brussels, principally on the north side, from which direction the Belgian troops in Antwerp would arrive for an attack. Brussels is calm, the correspondent continues, the German flag has been removed from the town hall to the ministry of foreign affairs.

UNHAPPY THIRTEEN TO LEAVE SUNDAY ISLAND

Auckland, N. Z., Aug. 29.—Sunday Island, a verdant tract of seven miles by five, in the Kermadec group of the South Pacific, is to be abandoned.

The thirteen persons who have been living a Crusoe-like life there have been driven to desperation by loneliness, rats, volcanic rumblings, and other afflictions, and the New Zealand government is to bring the party back to civilization.

Thomas Bell, who was landed on the island by a whaler in 1878 held undisputed possession of the place for twenty years, but the New Zealand government later apportioned the island among a number of settlers. Since then frequent attempts have been made to colonize the place, but Bell is the only one who stayed on. Even now, though the other twelve settlers are sick of the place, Bell says he would remain if the government would recognize his ownership.

While oranges, bananas and tobacco thrive on the island, there are no coconuts, and the crops which the handful of islanders try to plant are often destroyed by the small Pacific rats, and a surviving volcano frequently gives the island a shiver.

THREE CRUISERS SENT BELOW IN NORTH SEA

Vice-Admiral Beatty Outwits
Germans in North Sea and Punishes Them

London, Aug. 29.—The Chronicle gives the following account to the sinking of the German cruisers reported yesterday: A glorious victory has fallen to the British fleet. With all the courage and fearless enterprise that distinguished our old officers, who many times went into the very jaws of the enemy, Admirals Beatty, Christian and Moore have conducted the combined operations in the light of Heligoland, where the enemy had all its strength at command.

The triumph was complete. The German light cruiser Mainz, another of the Koeln class, and a third, whose name is unknown, have been destroyed this week, as well as two destroyers.

Evidently a concerted attack had been planned, just as our old seamen could have planned it, to begin in the dark and reach its decisive point at dawn. The attacking force was the organized battle cruiser squadron. The light cruiser squadrons and destroyers and submarine flotillas were engaged. To Vice-Admiral Beatty, the youngest flag officer afloat, commanding the first battle cruiser squadron, comprising the Lion (flagship), Queen Mary, Princess Royal and New Zealand, fell the opportunity and honor which will make him and his officers the envy of the whole fleet. The conduct of the operations was under the direction of Sir John Jellicoe, commander-in-chief. "Sir David Beatty is one of the most brilliant of our officers, and with him were Rear-Admiral Moore and Rear-Admiral Christian, also Commodore Keyes, Commodore Tyrwhitt and Commodore Goodenough.

"Complete as was the victory, we have suffered little. All our ships and vessels are afloat and in good order. We must officially note the efficiency of our gunnery. Not a German cruiser escaped, and their destroyers wildly fled to shelter, having two of their number sunk."

The German cruiser Mainz is a vessel of 4,322 tons, length, 388 ft.; beam, 46 ft., and draught, 16 ft. Her armament consisted of twelve 4.1-inch guns, four 2.1-inch guns, and four machine guns. Her speed was 22 knots. She was put in commission in 1910, and carried a complement of 363 men.

Vessels of the Koeln class are of 4,290 tons displacement, with the following dimensions: Length, 407 ft.; beam, 46 ft.; and draught, 16 ft. Their armament comprises twelve 4.1-inch guns, four 2.1-inch guns, and four machine guns. The average speed of vessels of this class is 27.2 knots, and their complement 363 men. The Koeln, which gave her name to the class, was completed in 1910.

The importance of this daring raid is the fact that the British fleet passed behind Germany's heavily armed outposts of Heligoland Island and engaged the German fleet guarding the mouth of the Elbe and the entrance to the Kiel canal. The speedily projected cruiser Mainz was one of the four of her class.

The British fleet had evidently tired of waiting for the German navy to come out into the open and fight, and planned the daring raid into the heart of the German squadrons clustering under the shelter of the guns of the fortress of Heligoland. There would be nothing notable in such a victory by the first battle cruiser squadron against the German ships of the Mainz and Koeln class if fought in the open, the battle cruisers of the first squadron being infinitely more powerful and speedy. It was in the sudden rush in the dark into the light of the guns of the fortress of Heligoland and the smashing of the shore guns and the smashing of the panic-stricken cruisers and destroyers that the glory of the victory lies.

The enterprise carried out by Vice-Admiral Beatty is characteristic of this youthful dispatching sea officer. Beatty's career is marked by such enterprises, though, by the nature of conditions, of smaller importance, and in carrying out this plan the vice-admiral fully justified the confidence of his superiors shown in his recent promotion. The battle cruisers engaged are the finest of their type in the world. The Queen Mary, the Lion and the Princess Royal are ships of the same class, the last word in modern battle cruisers, of 27,000 tons displacement, a speed of 28 knots and an armament of eight 13.5-inch guns, sixteen 4-inch and four 3-pounders, and a complement of 980 men. The New Zealand is a somewhat smaller cruiser of 18,800 tons, with a speed of 25 knots, a complement of 780 men, and an armament of eight 4.2-inch guns and sixteen 4-inch guns. Her part in the first big naval encounter is the first actual aid from the admirals overseas to the empire.

There was, of course, the usual smaller craft with the squadron and the details of the encounter will be awaited with interest. The Mainz and the other German cruisers damaged had sunk were not very powerful vessels, but the fact that the British navy over-reached the guns of Heligoland will have a far-reaching effect, and already disturbed the belief of the German fleet in the protection afforded it by shore guns. The moral effect will also be great and will relieve the monotony of the "watchful waiting" around the doors of the German navy's retreat.

In addition to the two torpedo-boat destroyers and three cruisers sunk, many of the German torpedo-boat destroyers were damaged.

A wireless dispatch received from one of the cruisers said she was making for port with men wounded in the engagement.

LOUVAIN WAS BURNED TO OBTAIN REVENGE

Wanton Destruction of Beautiful
City by Germans in Belgium

London, Aug. 29.—The war information bureau announces the following: "The Belgian minister of foreign affairs reports that on Tuesday a German army corps after capturing a check withdrew in disorder from the city of Louvain. The Germans on guard at the entrance of the city mistaking the nature of this incursion fired on their own countrymen whom they mistook for Belgians.

"In spite of all denials from the authorities, the Germans, in order to cover their mistake, pretended that it was the inhabitants who had fired on them, whereas the inhabitants, including the police, all had been disarmed more than a week before.

"Without inquiry and without listening to protest, the German commander announced that the town would be destroyed immediately. The inhabitants were ordered to leave their dwellings and some were made prisoners. The women and children were placed on trains, the destination of which is not known and soldiers furnished with bombs set fire to all parts of the city. The splendid church of St. Peter, the University buildings, the library and scientific establishments were delivered to the flames.

"Several notable citizens were shot. The city, which has a population of 45,000 and was the intellectual metropolis of the low countries is now nothing more than a heap of ashes."

RAILWAY NOT TAKING ADVANTAGE OF RATES

Lanigan Says Canadian Pacific
Would Scorn to Use Situation for Benefit.

Winnipeg, Aug. 28.—W. B. Lanigan, assistant freight-traffic manager, C. P. R., when asked for a statement about increased freight charges from Great Britain to Winnipeg, said that he was now in communication with headquarters in Montreal and would be prepared to make a statement in a day or so that would be convincing to the public that there had been no attempt on the part of the C. P. R. or other Canadian railways to take advantage of the war situation.

"You can say positively," he said, "that the C. P. R. will not profit by increased rates; that not a dollar of the higher rate will be absorbed for land carriage of goods."

Mr. Lanigan was informed that importers of British goods who had given the facts published, were decidedly of the opinion that by ceasing to quote through rates the C. P. R. was getting a larger net sum on the total cost of freight from Great Britain to Winnipeg.

Mr. Lanigan replied that they were mistaken, as the facts, when stated, would make clear. Canadian railways, which were doing their utmost for Canada and the empire in the present emergency, would scorn to take advantage of the situation as charged.

RAILROADS IN GERMANY CARRYING TROOPS EAST

London, Aug. 29.—A dispatch to the Evening News from Copenhagen says: "Ordinary railroad transportation in Germany has been suspended for the present because the railroads are engaged in carrying troops from the west front to the hard pressed east front."

TO CURE CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness and head noises will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected a complete cure after all else has failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear a watch tick have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear.

Therefore, if you know someone who is troubled with head noises, catarrh, or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula, and hand to them and you will have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmit (Double Strength), about 75c. worth. Take this home and add to it 4 pint of hot water and 4 oz. of moist or granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. The first dose promptly ends the most distressing head noises, dizziness, cloudy thinking, etc., while the hearing rapidly returns as the system is invigorated by the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell and mucous dripping in the back of the throat are other symptoms that show the presence of catarrhal poison, and which are quickly overcome by this efficacious treatment. Nearly ninety per cent of all ear troubles are directly caused by catarrh; therefore, there are but few people whose hearing cannot be restored to normal by this simple home treatment. Every person who is troubled with head noises, catarrhal deafness, or catarrh in the form should give this prescription a trial. There is nothing better.

IMPORTANT.—In ordering Parmit always specify that you want Double Strength; your druggist has it or he can get it for you; if not, send 75c. to the International Laboratories, 74 St. Antoine street, Montreal, P. Q., who make a specialty of it.

JAPAN SENDING TSUKUBA TO PASS THROUGH CANAL

Tokio, Aug. 29.—The first class armored cruiser Tsukuba has been selected to take part in the opening of the Panama canal instead of the cruiser Chikuma. The Tsukuba with the cruiser Ibuki will sail for Hampton Roads about the middle of October, going by the Suez canal and the Atlantic ocean. The Tsukuba is a much larger ship than the Chikuma, being almost 14,000 tons in displacement and having a speed of 21 knots. She was built in 1905 and carried a main armament of twelve six-inch guns.

Rear-Admiral Isamu Takeshira will be the commander of the squadron.

Left on Trip.—For the purpose of inspecting the line as far as Cameron lake, General Superintendent Beasley, of the E. & N. railway, left the city yesterday, and will return this evening.

Dallas Road Improvement.—The city council yesterday afternoon passed the by-law to pave with heavy asphalt the roadway of Dallas road between Erie and Simcoe streets at the outer wharf. Work will be commenced at once.

Routine Business.—A meeting of the Oak Bay council was held on Monday night for the purpose of discussing routine business which has accumulated since the last session of the council. Several questions are in abeyance, it is understood, with respect to roads and other public works.

Holding Investigation.—Hon. Aulay Morrison and Hon. W. A. Macdonald, of the supreme court bench, have completed their investigation under the redistribution commission in the north and are on their way to the Fraser valley. After completing the constituency in the valley, Delta, Chilliwack and Dwydney, they will go to the Nicola country and will then come to Vancouver Island.

Postal Clerk Leaves.—George Bloomfield, for some time past a member of the clerical staff of the Victoria post office, was the recipient of a handsome shaving set and brushes from his fellow-employees at the post office on Thursday afternoon. In view of his departure yesterday with the 88th regiment for the front, Postmaster Bishop, on behalf of the staff, made the presentation, which was accompanied by the hearty good wishes of the donors.

More British Mail.—Ample evidence of the continued immunity of British ships on the high seas from interference from enemies is given in the fairly regular arrival of mails from the British Isles. A further consignment, consisting of 57 bags of papers, 52 baskets of packages and four bags of letters arrived yesterday, having been carried by R. M. S. Megantic, which is to help in carrying the Canadian contingent across the Atlantic.

Will Improve Rockland Avenue.—The streets committee of the city council yesterday afternoon decided to proceed with the repair of the macadam on Rockland avenue at a cost of about $6,000, provided that the owners who so far have refused to pay their assessments will undertake to meet their levies without any further difficulties. Many refusals have been made in the past. The mayor said that only ten per cent of the levies had been paid to date, although the work was done four years ago.

Express Thanks.—The staff at Yarrows, Ltd., has forwarded the following to the management: "The employees of Yarrows, Ltd., are thankful, and hereby express their high appreciation of the company's patriotic act in closing the works on August 28 so that the employees could all take part in the demonstration attending the departure of Victoria's contingent for the seat of war. TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Times, August 29, 1889.

The new tug Lorne, built for the Messrs. Dunsmuir in this city, was tested in her first trial trip on Wednesday evening. She was built on Laing's way, and is a powerful boat, first-class in every particular.

The Esquimalt and Nanaimo railway has added some very necessary equipment to its line in the shape of thirteen new hand cars. They arrived from the east last night, and are the manufacture of the Sheffield Velocipede Company, of Three Rivers, Michigan.

Lieut.-Col. Fred C. Denison, M. P., and Mrs. Denison, of Toronto, arrived last night, and will remain at the Driad hotel for a few days. Col. Denison is a native Canadian, and was a volunteer in the raid of 1866, followed Wolsley in the Red River expedition, and more recently served in the Sudan under the same officer. He will return east by way of the Yellowstone park.

Robert Irving, of Portland, has purchased about five acres of ground on Moss street for the sum of $15,000. Mr. Irving will build a handsome residence and will make Victoria his home in future.

Building Permits.—Building permits have been issued to J. Irvine for a house at 3127 Quadra street costing $3,200; to Hayward Bros. for a house at 1440 Clifford street; and to Duncan Ross for a stable at 1560 Rockland avenue.

Nurses Change Headquarters.—The local branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses reports that it has removed to 1054 Regent street, near the corner of Cook street and Pandora avenue, the telephone number at which will be the same as previously, 4944.

Addresses Teachers.—Miss Wynn, the special teacher appointed by the city school board to start classes for sub-normal pupils, addressed the school principals yesterday, giving advice as to the best way in which the teachers' assistance could be given to the movement.

Second Grade Fruit.—The consignment of second-grade fruit sent in for sale at the Cowichan Creamery today will not be placed on the market. The Household League announces. The shipment of Okanagan tomatoes is finding a ready sale as the fruit is in first-class condition.

Allowed to Go.—William Porran, charged with vagrancy, was given another chance by Acting Magistrate Prior this morning. The city prosecutor stated that there were no special circumstances, and the accused admitted being drunk at the time of arrest.

Print Proceedings.—The board of trade has had printed the report of the proceedings at the conference held at the parliament buildings last Tuesday when the financial outlook was discussed. All citizens desiring copies may have them by calling at the office of the board of trade on Monday or on any day thereafter.

Sale of Emblems Profitable.—The Daughters of the Empire report that the sum of $120 was taken yesterday morning by the sale of flags along the route taken by the troops on their way to the C. P. R. docks. The proceeds were far in excess of expectations, and will be added to the emergency fund for relief purposes.

Potato Growing Contest.—The first competition in potato-growing for children up to 18 years of age under the auspices of the Farmers' institutes, organized under the department of agriculture, is now being judged. Twenty-one farmers' institutes have competitions in progress and judges' awards are expected in the immediate future.

Preserving Fruit.—The Cowichan Women's Institute, with a view to giving employment to women in need of help, has undertaken the preserving and bottling of fruits to provide stores for the winter. The clubrooms in the Agricultural hall, Duncan, are being used as headquarters for the enterprise, and second-grade fruit is being largely used for economies sake.

Dentists Fined.—Dr. O. C. Gilbert was fined $25 in the police court this morning for contracting with P. P. Grady to practice the profession of dentistry in Victoria when the latter was not registered under the act. Mr. Grady was similarly fined $25 for entering into the same contract. H. A. Maclean, K. C., acted on behalf of the prosecution, while W. C. Moresby appeared for the defence.

Will Aid Volunteers.—At the last meeting of the Knights of Columbus it was decided to keep in good standing all members who have volunteered for active service with the Canadian contingent. In order that a correct record may be had, the secretary would be greatly assisted by the members sending in the names of members known to have gone with the contingent as several have gone away without leaving their names.

OUR LORD'S RETURN

The Signs of the Times

Probably upon no other Biblical subject has there been more speculation than upon "Our Lord's Return." Ever since the Ascension of the Saviour, some nineteen centuries ago, Christian people with more or less expectancy have been looking for His return. The manner of His return and its object, however, seems to have been clouded under more or less vague and unscripural reasoning, probably arising from a too free application of highly symbolic language.

In times past many have associated with "Our Lord's return" the thought that His presence would be accompanied with a blowing of trumpets, flashing lightning, the judging of the dead, and a burning earth. Such reasoning, however, has tended to cast a reflection upon one of the most glorious of Christian hopes—"Our Lord's Return."

The Bible positively states "The earth abideth for ever," and "Times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord." The restoration or restoration of all things (Acts iii: 19-21); and that at the time of Christ's presence His Kingdom shall be established in power—and great glory. When "The Day of Messiah's Glory" shall be ushered in for the blessing of "all the families of the earth," when the risen saints shall be reigning with Him in glory (Rev. xx: 6); when the curse shall have been removed and the "Desire of all Nations" shall have come.

In the lecture, Sunday evening at 7.30 in the new I. B. S. A. hall, 1613 Douglas street, the signs of His presence, the manner of His return, and its object, also the signs of the approaching kingdom, and the reward of the saints will be dealt with from the Scriptures.

The lecture is under the auspices of the International Bible Students' association.

DISCUSS MANY ISSUES

B. C. Manufacturers' Association Will Hold Annual Meeting in Vancouver Next Wednesday.

Among the representatives of the Victoria branch at the first annual meeting of the B. C. Manufacturers' association, to be held on Wednesday next at the board of trade, Vancouver, will be J. Carl Pendray, S. R. Newton, F. Westley Newton, hon. secretary; W. H. P. Sweeney and W. A. Jamieson.

Many important subjects will be taken up at the session, one arising out of a deputation from the association which will wait upon the governors of the University of British Columbia on Monday, asking for preference for British Columbia materials in construction. Other important matters will deal with the representations to be made to Sir George Foster with regard to openings for business in South America and steps to be taken to improve the opportunities which the European war has given for manufacturing articles which formerly have been imported to this country.

The situation with regard to dependents of volunteers at the war will be discussed, as many large employers of labor are affected. Secretary J. Hart, Vancouver, has been gathering information to lay before the meeting with regard to the method in which Canada can best secure the trade formerly held by Germans and Austrians, and Secretary F. W. Newton said to-day that the question of the voiding of patents held by subjects of the enemy in Canada will also be pressed, as has been done in the old country.

This means that Goodyear super-service has won. Men are seeking more than mere "looks" in tires. They want the facts—the records. And when men know that Goodyear Motorcycle Tires hold every world's record for speed and durability it far outweighs any consideration of "whim" or favor in buying.

AUTO MEET WILL BE HELD LABOR DAY

Permission has been granted by the directors of the British Columbia Agricultural association to E. J. Cameron to hold an auto and motorcycle meet at the Willows track on Labor Day. Mr. Cameron states that he will have some of the finest bike-riders in the Northwest here for this meet, and he will also endeavor to secure some of the high-powered cars from Seattle and Vancouver for the feature motor races. Races for the B. C. Horse will also be included in the programme, which will be announced next week.

On Exhibition.—Mr. Maynard's win-dows are frequently interesting for their pioneer collections, and at the present time he has a display of weapons on view at the Pandora avenue store. They are firearms of various dates, some of which are family heirlooms.

The Milk That Has

THE NATURAL FLAVOR
5c and 10c

The immense sale through-out British Columbia on B. C. Milk is due not only to the fact that it is economical, convenient, and safe to use, but also to the fact that it is known as the "Milk that has the natural flavor." The Government test shows it to be of the highest grade.

Austrians in Court.—Two Austrians with unpronounceable names appeared in the police court this morning charged with being drunk. An interpreter had to be called to explain the circumstances to them. Both were found guilty and the usual penalty was imposed in each case.

Mrs. H. VON RODEN of LYNDON, KY.

Recommends Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for Backache, Nervousness, Headaches.

Lyndon, Ky.—"I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for headaches, neuralgia pains, backache, nervousness and a general run down condition of the system, and am entirely relieved of these troubles. I recommend your remedies to my friends and give you permission to publish what I write."

Mrs. H. VON RODEN, Lyndon, Ky.
When a woman like Mrs. Von Roden is generous enough to write such a letter as the above for publication, she should at least be given credit for a sincere desire to help other suffering women, for we assure you there is no other reason why she should court such publicity.

Canadian Woman's Experience:

Windsor, Ont.—"The birth of my first child left me a wreck with terrible weak spells, but I am glad to tell you that I do not have those weak spells and I feel like a new woman since taking Lydia E. IS KNOWN HERE

Commander Casement, of British Cruiser Highflyer, Victorious Off West African Coast

Commander John Casement, second in command on H. M. S. Highflyer, which sank the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse off the West African coast, was at Esquimaux about twenty years ago, and is well remembered by old-timers here.

The Highflyer, according to the navy list issued this year, is of 5,600 tons, with an indicated horse-power of 10,000 in her engines. She is designated a light cruiser and carries eleven 6-inch guns, eight 12-pounders and one 3-pounder. Captain H. T. Buller, M. V. O., has been in command of her since July 1, 1913, and Commander John Casement's appointment dates from August of the same year. The Highflyer was used in times of peace as a training ship for naval cadets.

Roger Casement, Commander Casement's father, formerly was engaged in business in Vancouver. B. J. Casement, a brother of the commander of the Highflyer, was one of the contingent of the Sixth Field Company, Royal Canadian Engineers, which left Vancouver for Valcartier on Tuesday.

AT THE THEATRES

"A BUTTERFLY ON THE WHEEL"

In the title of "A Butterfly on the Wheel," the drama to be presented by the Allen Players for the week beginning August 31, there is an impressive symbolism. The play shows a sensitive weak woman in the grip of British law being battered by cross-examination until her wings are broken and she collapses.

Peggy Adamson, the girl wife of an ambitious politician, forms friends of her own when her husband, given over to the seeking of his political aims, leaves her to herself. Her charms captivate a brilliant young social lion, who seeing her lack of interest in her husband's career, fancies she reciprocates his affection.

A jealous woman and a combination of circumstances put Peggy in a compromising situation and her husband, suddenly awakened, sues for divorce. There is a spirit of comedy in the first two acts which from being amusing gradually grows sinister as the toils of circumstance are seen to wind themselves about the wife. This sinister influence comes to its climax in the third act where the majestic wheels of justice are seen revolving regardless of whom they crush.

Miss Verne Felton, who has been seen in emotional roles with great success in this city will play Peggy, while Norman Fenner will appear as the austere husband. There are clever parts also for Biron Eagan and Irving Kennedy and the other members of the company. The dialogue of the play is brilliant and every character has a distinct individuality.

PANTAGES VAUDEVILLE.

Rex Adams' production of "The Night Hawks," a playlet that is said to be filled with life, action and color, will be the headline attraction of the new bill at Pantages, opening with the matinee Monday. Adams and Ethel Adenson will play the principal parts. The act was written by L. E. Friedman, of Saturday Evening Post fame.

The extra added attraction for the week will be Wood's Animal Actors, one of the best known features of the kind now in vaudeville. The new show will also be notable for the appearance of Palfrey, Barton and Brown, excellent entertainers, who offer a hodgepodge of mirth and melody.

Other numbers on the programme are Rozella and Rozella, in a tip-top musical novelty; Meyrl and Reta, in a singing and dancing act, and Quilan and Richards, who say the only excuse for their presence on the bill is the fact that they are comedians. The show will be opened by comedy Pantagescope pictures.

To-night there will be the weekly extra opportunity to see the unusually excellent bill being offered, as there will be three performances, the first starting 7.30. The bill is one of the best yet offered at the popular house.

ORPHEUM VAUDEVILLE.

The Orpheum is booking its attractions at the Royal Victoria for two nights and two matinees each week, Monday and Tuesday and intends to be a big factor in entertaining the people of this city during the coming season. The opening performances on last Monday and Tuesday, excellent as they were, are to be followed next week by a bill of an equally high character.

At the head of the coming bill appears beautiful Hermonie Shone and her talented company in their very attractive playlet, "The Last of the Quakers," by Edgar Allan Wood, the distinguished critic and playwright. It affords this dainty and fascinating young comedienne with her professional career. It is an idyllic little comedy which is certain to make a strong bid for favor.

Next in importance comes the Six American Dancers, which have scored a sensational success on the principal stages of the continent, Great Britain and America. This is unquestionably the greatest dancing act sent on tour this year.

These are only two of the numbers on the new programme. There are five others: Harry Tsuda, the sensational Japanese equilibrist; Maurice Burkhardt and Elmore, White, the Home Run Hitters in the Singers league; Gormley and Coffery, comedy acrobats; Finn and Koo, who are international funmakers of the highest reputation; and Alf Grant and Ethel Hoag in their spontaneously funny combination of patter and funmaking called "The Troublesome Trunk."

"THE CANDY SHOP."

There is nothing of pedantic uplift in the component parts of "The Candy Shop," the brilliant musical comedy which comes to the Royal Victoria theatre Thursday, and Friday, September 10-11.

On the contrary, the piece was constructed for laughing purposes only. There is a semblance of a plot, sufficient to exploit the versatility of William Rock and Maude Fulton, and a company of sixty exceptionally talented comedians, singers, dancers and pretty girls.

The owner of a candy shop has a son, Jack, who has fallen in love with Hilda, one of the pretty shop girls. As the girl is poor, the father is violently opposed to the match, and on the son's defying his father, he is disowned and cast adrift. Hilda, also, is dismissed from the shop, being accused of having stolen a piece of jewelry, supposedly lost in the shop by a customer.

The second act takes place at Dreamland park in Condy island, where the principals appear as guests of Ned Hogan, a Coney amusement promoter. During this scene Rock and Fulton offer their inimitable burlesque on Mme. S.rah Bernhardt in one of her famous scenes with Lou Tellegen.

Everything ends happily in the final discovery that Hilda, the shop girl, is an extremely wealthy heiress. Incidentally, Rock and Fulton will give their famous "Ghost Dance" which, worked out on the lines of black art in a darkened auditorium, produces an extremely novel and startling effect.

AN EASY WAY TO INCREASE WEIGHT

GOOD ADVICE FOR THIN FOLKS

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless flesh creams; or following some foolish physical culture while the real cause of thinness goes unheeded. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.

Thanks to a remarkable new scientific discovery, it is now possible to combine into a simple, very effective remedy, needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This master-stroke of modern chemistry is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aims through its regenerative, reconstructive powers to coax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to every starved, broken-down cell and tissue of your body. You can readily picture the result when this amazing transformation has taken place and you notice how your cheeks fill out, hollows about your neck, shoulders and bust disappear and you take on from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. Dr. E. Campbell and other leading druggists of Victoria and vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package.

CAUTION—While Sargol has given excellent results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles, it should not be taken by those who do not wish to gain ten pounds or more.

Ignorance and Bliss—Until he found out that he had a stomach man was pretty comfortable. But after that his troubles were something fierce. A cow regarded him with interest. "If to be ignorant of the existence of one's paunch means so much," she reflected sagely, "how fortunate am I not to know that I have six."

Human pride and ambition will never permit a universal acquiescence in any conclusion.—Griswold.

HORSES IN BATTLE.

To the Editor:—With reference to the "Purple Cross Society," started in England, I should be glad to know if any other country in time of war has been known to make a systematic effort to relieve or destroy wounded horses? Also if Red Cross dogs are used in any other country than France for the purpose of finding out wounded soldiers?

If the Royal Humane society is enabled to carry out its design of sending men to care for horses on fields of battle, it will have performed a noble work. The agonies endured by these innocent victims are too awful to be pictured for naturally the sufferings of wounded soldiers must be attended to first of all.

We hope for the day when horses will not be used at all in battle and for a still better time when wars will cease to be.

It is regrettable that the Victoria Humane society is so greatly in need of funds at present that it cannot send any practical answer to the Royal society's appeal for help, but everyone will wish them success in their noble endeavor and will trust that there may be many volunteers to the ranks of the "Purple Cross Society."

"A WELL WISHER OF THE S. P. C. A."

ASIATIC LABOR ON S. S. "PROTEUS."

To the Editor:—On behalf of the Marine Firemen's Union of British Columbia I would like to draw attention to the fact that Asiatic labor, namely, Chinese firemen, are being engaged and employed on board the Blue Funnel S. S. "Proteus," at present in anchor in Esquimaux harbor.

This steamship is the vessel which has been selected by the government authorities as a supply ship to ply on the waters of the Pacific ocean, its purport or object being to supply ships of our allied forces with coal and other necessities during the present crisis.

I consider it my duty to draw attention to the fact that a vessel of this nature should most emphatically be manned by men of our own nationality, religion and sympathies; while this country, much to its credit and honor is forwarding men and troops to the front to assist Great Britain in the conflict, and whilst the utmost care is adopted in selecting these men, what a lamentable fact would be disclosed if it were later discovered that the supply ship "Proteus," representative of British Columbia, and maintained by public Canadian funds, was sent to sea with a crew of Chinese firemen.

I am informed there would be absolutely no difficulty in securing the services of ample firemen of our own nationality to work this ship.

Recent events have shown that Chinese pirates have ravished, robbed and wrecked British vessels off the coast of China; of course it is manifestly unfair to condemn Chinese generally simply for such acts of irresponsible hands like this, but it simply shows that they are not to be trusted to any extent, and to send a national ship to sea with such a type as firemen is not only in my opinion rather an insult to British firemen, but somewhat a menace to those on board.

This vessel may be called upon to fulfill missions of an extraordinary nature, and may I suggest that as much care should be exercised in the selection of its crew as is taken by the authorities in selecting volunteers and members for other branches of the service.

DUNLOP TREAD TRACTION

FIRST THINGS

The first author of books dealing with card games was Edmund Hoyle, who died in London, aged ninety-seven, just 145 years ago to-day. His treatises on whist, piquet, and other games of chance are still authorities, and "According to Hoyle" has become a proverb. Hoyle has been called the inventor of whist, which is an error, although he was the first to popularize the game and place it on a scientific and exact footing. Hoyle was a lawyer by profession, but he derived a good income from his books. For his treatise on whist he received $5,000, and the work was so popular that it ran through five editions the first year, besides many pirated editions. Hoyle gave instructions in whist to parties of ladies and gentlemen, charging each $5 per lesson. For some years he held an official court position in Ireland, which paid him $3,000 per year. Hoyle's book on whist was first published in 1743, and its circulation since then has probably run into the millions of copies.

Shortly after the return of the Atlantic fleet two naval officers were talking about their wives. Naturally, they used nautical terms. "What a dear little craft your wife is," said the first. "Dear and little," did you say? She is dear all right, but there's nothing little about her. Why, she is the biggest revenue cutter I have ever seen."

SIMPLICITY MARKS GOWNS FOR MOURNING

White Now Being Worn by Young People; Cre and Corded Silk

New York, Aug. 22.—In mourning, simplicity is the keynote of good taste. The wardrobe should be chosen for conservative good style and inconspicuousness.

A mourning top-coat of heavy black cloth with a soft dull finish made into one of the smart loose cape coats so favored, is most desirable. The pleated effects may be used for general wear. For suits, gabardine or serge with a dull finish is serviceable and smart. Pure white or dull black linings should be used.

Soft faille silk with a dull lustre is used for the more dressy type of suit. Ripple silk, which is a heavy variety of Canton silk may be used, also, for this type of costume.

For an afternoon dress crepe de chine is most attractive and distinctive. One charming feature of this silk is that it may be self-trimmed, and, if anything, this enhances its beauty. All costumes worn for first mourning may be combined with crepe. But crepe should be used sparingly, as too much is in poor taste. From among a number of mourning dresses models have been chosen for the illustrations, both showing the attractive use of crepe and dull silk as a trimming.

The first is of dull crepe satin. At the lower edge of the long tunic is a wide band of corded silk cut on the bias. This same silk is used to edge the V-shaped opening of the over-waist, front and back. A long-sleeved guimpe of net is worn with this dress whose most noticeable feature is its stiffly standing frill of lace at the neck. The plain hat is of crepe satin with trimming of the corded silk and of gathered maline.

Voile and net are two materials widely used for summer and fall dresses and for mourning, when variety is limited, it is very smart. The second illustration shows a dress of black voile. The skirt with triple circular ruffles has a band of crepe edging each ruffle. The waist is made with kimono-cut sleeves having a circular cuff which is also trimmed with a band of crepe as is the front of the voile waist. The chemise and collar are of black net over white and hemstitched. A wide girde of crepe which buttons down the front completes the costume. A charming dress of net is made with a waist in bolero effect. Around the edges of this bolero, which extends to the shoulder and underarm seams only, is a ball fringe of dull black wooden beads. In the corners of the bolero are beaded motifs in very fine dull black beads.

Chiffon cloth is widely used for mourning waists and lends itself charmingly to the simple trimming of hand run tucks and simple shirring. Black point-d'esprit is combined with net in many ways and makes a greater variety possible.

Dull satin with the waxed finish is used for waists as well as crepe de chine and crepe chiffon. A waist of black crepe de chine is made with a chemise of net picot edged and trimmed with picot edged frills of the crepe de chine.

Georgette crepe in black or white is used both for waists and for the soft clinging type of gown. It is charmingly trimmed with either faille, taffeta or dull satin.

All costumes worn for first mourning can be trimmed with crepe, and white crepe is smart when used at the neck for the collar or vest, and for the cuffs as well.

For young people all white is being used a great deal for mourning. It is not as depressing as black and yet it is just as much a badge of sorrow. All white hats of lusterless taffeta are trimmed with white crepe flowers, or a small, close-fitting hat of white has a large Empress Eugenie veil in white precisely following the widow's black veil of the same name. This style of veil is heavy and smothering for very hot weather, although it is a protection from kindly but curious eyes. It is a large hemmed square of crepe with one corner rounded out to fit the neck, finished with a frill of the same. It is fastened around the neck with the long point hanging down in front and is then thrown over the head and fastened securely to the hat with pins. It is unusually graceful and most becoming.

White chiffon cloth is used for the dressier dresses. One was seen made of box-pleated chiffon cloth and the skirt had a box-pleated tunic with a wide hem. Just above the hem was an inset, insertion of point-d'esprit. This frock was remarkable for its charming inconspicuousness.

Sheer collars and cuffs of organdy are accessories which may be used. Hemstitched, or with hems fagoted, they give a finish and a dainty touch, which help to take away the dreariness of all black.

Collars and cuffs of organdy have hems of black which are attached to the collar by machine hemstitching. The woman with a little ingenuity and time to spare can make many variations in these dainty accessories.

Handkerchiefs are shown with hems of black either a half an inch or an inch wide. Some have a second border on the inside of black. It may be merely a pin stripe or it may be three-eighths of an inch.

In mourning, very little jewelry is worn, and that must be the simplest of the simple. Pearl and dull jet are combined into artistic little pins and necklaces. Dull black enamel pins are also used.

Hems of ruffles and of dresses are hemstitched or are finished with a picot edging, which is merely having a piece of the material hemstitched and then cut down the centre of the hemstitching; this leaves a picot edging on either side.

Shoes should be worn of dull black kid. The low shoe should have a dull kid buckle while for the high-heeled slipper a round, flat button of jet is correct.

Gloves, of course, are always black. Usually rather long, wrinkling about the wrist. Heavy black kid gloves are proper to wear with the severely tailored suit. Long black kid gloves are also worn when desired, but long suede gloves to wear with the costumes are to be preferred.

FINAL LACROSSE GAME BOOKED FOR LABOR DAY

Arrangements have been completed with the Westminster lacrosse club to have the Royals play their postponed match with the Victoria twelve at Oak Bay on Labor Day. A telegram was received yesterday in which the Westminster team said it would make the trip to the Victoria team will finish the season at Vancouver the following Saturday, September 12. A practise of the Victoria club will be held tomorrow morning at Oak Bay when Manager Poulin looks for a full turnout.

Milton Oppenheimer, vice-president of the Vancouver A. C. Mann cupholders, tendered his resignation at a meeting of the club on Thursday night, and intends withdrawing from lacrosse.

SPORTING NEWS

VICTORIA ATHLETES PLAYING BIG PART IN CANADIAN CONTINGENT

Empire Football Club Sends Ten Volunteers; Many Rugby, Soccer, and Cricket Stars Join Regiments

Victoria sportsmen are responding nobly to the call of the empire, and the coming soccer and rugby seasons will be seriously affected by the departure of a number of the finest athletes in the city who have left for the front. In eastern Canada the situation is the same. It is anticipated that sport throughout the whole Dominion will receive a severe setback because of the demand for the nation's manhood at the front. The Interprovincial rugby league and the Intercollegiate league will be made up mostly of clubs who have mustered their young players for this year, the majority of the veteran players having enlisted for service.

Several scores of Victoria rugby players have enlisted, the Bays losing Charlie Brown and C. S. Thurborn, who are with the 88th regiment. Lieutenant Irving, E. S. Tuck, Tommy Gagan and C. E. Stricker, have joined the Highlanders and are now en route to Valcartier. The Law Students will miss A. Milligan, a former captain; H. Boggs and J. R. Moffre, who are with the 88th, and W. B. Monteth, who is with the Fifth regiment. G. C. Grant and R. H. Columbine, the Wanderer stars, have joined the 88th; Hill, of the Welsh club, is with the Highlanders, while the fifth school fifteen losses a great many players, including Lieut. Wallace Don Heyland, Eric McCallum, A. J. Gray, and Dug Campbell, all of whom would have been seen in senior ranks this year.

In addition to the above, W. Pilkington, the Bays' sterling soccer star, has joined the 88th, while D. O. Rochford, secretary of the R. V. Y. C., is an officer with the Canadian overseas contingent. Shorty Ward, of the Wests, left with the Fifth regiment division. The Cowichan cricket club will lose such fine athletes as Brooke-Smith and C. F. Bagnall. There are others who are serving with their regiments in the capital, including Carow Martin, and players who have starred with the Wanderers, Bays and Law Students.

Hamilton Tigers will lose the services of Billy Mallet, considered the greatest punter in eastern Canada, and Billy Young and Art Wilson. Montreal will lose many of its youthful stars, while Geoffrey B. Taylor, the former Aaga stroke, now attending Oxford university, has enlisted for service in the British army. In a letter home he announced the news to his family, and a coincidence is that in the meantime his brother, D. Taylor, has volunteered with the Canadian forces.

The Empire Football club has lost 10 of its playing members and 4 committee-men owing to the call for volunteers. They include Hewitt, Donald, Campbell, Wilkerson, Knox, Harris, Woods, S. Marsh, Murch, Davies. The committee-men are Heybourne, Ball, Cook, Sherwood. Six of these have left for Valcartier. All that is left is Manager A. Lally, Capt. Elliott, and Secretary D. Lally, and they will try and get a senior team for this season, composed mostly of intermediate players.

Watson, of the Wests, left yesterday with the 50th Highlanders.

SALARY REDUCTION FOR LEAGUE SOON

Northwestern Club Owners Consider Culling Limit to $2,700; Federals Active

"I feel sure that there will be a reduction in the salary limit of the Northwestern league clubs next season," was the statement of Owner Kingham to the Times this morning.

"The losses of the different clubs in the season just closed have forced upon the magnates the truth that the Northwestern league clubs have been paying too much money for their playing talent."

Mr. Kingham states that some of the clubs in the league have touched the $4,500 mark this year, and there is not a club in the league that is operating on less than $3,000 a month. This means that the clubs are averaging $200 a month for their fifteen players. There are outfielders in the Northwestern league drawing $250 a month, and Mike Lynch, as manager of the Spokane club, is getting $400 a month for his services.

Perhaps the first move of the directors towards retrenchment was made in fixing the salary of the league president. He was started at $1,800 instead of at the rate of $2,000 which Fielder Jones had been drawing this circuit. Even if the Northwestern league limits its clubs to about $2,700 a month, the league will still pay the highest salaries of any class B league. The International league, with its class AA rating, operated on a strict $7,000 a month limit last year, and it was only the advent of the Federals that made President Barrow lift this limit. The truth of the matter is that the ball clubs have been going ahead regardless of the financial tieup throughout the country until now they are forced to cut down.

It is now said that the Federals are making overtures to the International league with the object of amalgamating with clubs in that circuit. The owners of the Pittsburgh Federals would like greatly to go behind the Montreal club with their money, their influence, and to a large measure with their playing strength. The Ward Brothers, of Brooklyn, aim to get behind the Jersey City Skeeters, while Ned Hanlon, of Baltimore, may possibly put a deal through whereby the Terrapins and Orioles may get together.

"Pepper" McHenry has been twirling wonderful ball for the Bays of late, yet Nick Williams makes the boast that Tiny Leonard has better control of the underhand delivery than any other twirler in this league.

Joe McGinnity, Dick Kaufman, Oscar Jones and Al Gipe are pitchers with wonderful control. The two stars of the Bays, who have been making delivery that gives a rise to the ball, when these two pitchers and they have not control they should get out of the game, for they have little else.

Leonard uses the underhand delivery. Nick Williams told him of Carl Mays' success with that delivery and while Leonard used it once in a while before he perfected his control of it this spring and summer.

The shakeup prescribed by McGraw last season has been followed and revised

SHOULD MAKE GOOD

Joe Wilhoit, former Victoria outfielder, who joined the Venice Coast League club to-day, Wilhoit says that it is just as easy to hit in the coast circuit as it is in the Northwestern league. The umpires are better in that circuit and the batters do not have to strike at bad balls. Wilhoit says the pitchers have nothing but control on the curve artists in this circuit.

Four Seattle twirlers failed to stop the hitting of the Bays yesterday, with the result that Bobby Steele chalked up another win, the final count being 7 to 5. Victoria sent the weakest club yet fielded this season against the line-drive for the third out left two on bases. Fries followed with a drive over the fence, counting three runs. Dell popped to Kelly but failed to run the hit out and though Kelly dropped the ball, he recovered in time to tag Dell before the latter reached the bag.

SEATTLE BEATEN BY HARD HITTING

Steele Holds Visitors Safe While Team-mates Hammer Four Slab Artists; 7 to 5

Because of the injury to Babe Driest, Delmas had to send McHenry into right field. The change did not affect the strength of the club defence, for McHenry handled his only chance in line style. Seattle's quartette of slab artists was very wild, tussling seven passes and hitting a batter, while the Bays hammered the ball for ten clean hits, the blows coming when they did the most damage. Charlie Swain turned in a homer and a triple, scoring all of Seattle's runs until the ninth, when Fries counted three with his drive over the fence. Seattle played poor ball in the field, James having three boots to his credit, while Dell and Raymond also muffed up a couple of chances.

Empire Fray took exception to the language of Busher Mails when the latter had relieved Bonner in the fifth and after finishing his southpaw five dollars, banished him to the shower. Dell finishing up the game. Charlie Fullerton started the contest. He was tapped for two hits, which, combined with James' error and Calver's walk, were good for two runs. Scanlon's hit counted two more. Hits by Nye and Delmas scored another in the second. In the fourth Victoria ran bases wild on Cadman, scoring a run on Kelly's clean hit. Mails forced a run in the fifth, being replaced by Dell. This ended the scoring for the home club.

Kelly led the Victoria club with three singles and a pass in five trips to the plate. Delmas and Lamb also had a pair of hits while Swain and James led the opposition. Steele did not give a base on balls, striking out five batters.

The duck horse in the senior division will undoubtedly be the Sir John Jackson eleven, which has of late been signing up some of the finest soccer stars on the coast. The team made splendid progress in the intermediate ranks last season and the promotion to senior ranks comes as a result of such good work. The Albert Head eleven have signed on Thorburn, the former James Bay goal tend; George Nichols, of the Wards, and F. Kerley, of the Sons, for their forward line; Jimmie Allen, Thistles; P. Greene, Thistles; Blendell, Sons and Niven, Thistles, for their half line. The above players are all senior calibre and with the pick of last year's intermediate team they should comprise a very formidable aggregation for the coming season.

It is rumored that Archie Muir, the Wards' star centre-forward, will lead the Thistles this season, in which event this club will have landed one of the trickiest forwards in the game. Muir refuses to announce his intentions for the coming season.

A charge that Coquitlam played McNaughton, an ineligible New Westminster player, against Victoria in the final game for the McBride shield last season is being investigated by the British Columbia Football association, and President Dave Leth has written to the champions asking for an explanation. If there is none satisfactory the champions will lose the shield.

Seattle, Aug. 28.—Daffy O'Brien, of Seattle, and Charlie White, of Chicago, have been matched to fight 20 rounds at Denver on Labor day.

FIGHT THEIR WAY INTO FINAL ROUND

Victoria and Cowichan, by Victorries Yesterday, Entered for Honors To-day

Victoria, by defeating Nanaimo, and Cowichan, by a victory over the Vancouver Nomads, earned a place yesterday into the final of the Pacific Coast cricket tournament, which was played at the Jubilee hospital grounds today. Up to today each team had won four games and had been beaten once in the competition. Cowichan defeated Victoria earlier in the week, but this was not regarded as any gauge for the issue of the struggle to-day, as unexpected circumstances militated against the local eleven showing to best advantage. The game to-day promised to be the best matched event in local cricket this season.

The Victoria team won by 63 runs yesterday from Nanaimo, the latter in its second innings scoring 62 for the loss of three wickets. Westwood made an excellent showing for Nanaimo and reached the half century before being caught off Gillespie.

Alexis Martin appeared once again as a crack batsman and carried out his bat at 84, having seven fours to his credit, and having given no chance to the field. G. L. Wright made 45, the last four wickets of Victoria falling cheaply. The scores:

Annual Meeting.
Q. M. S. Robertson, of the Garrison Cricket club, was re-elected president of the Pacific Coast Cricket Association at the annual gathering which was held in the Pacific club last night. H. J. Orr, of the Cowichan C. C., was elected vice-president, and R. J. Ford, of Victoria C. C., will act as secretary. The next tournament will be held in Victoria, the third week in August next. A vote of thanks was passed to the Albion C. C. for the use of their grounds and also to the friends who so kindly assisted in serving the refreshments.

Now that Norman E. Brookings and Anthony F. Wilding have taken back the Davis cup to the land of the kangaroo, by virtue of their victory over the best this continent put forth, the thought comes that this is probably the

TO OFFER PRIZES FOR
CULTIVATED LOTSVacant Lands Development
Committee Formulates Policy to Govern Movement

Much progress was made in the movement to promote a back-to-the-land scheme yesterday when the committee of the Victoria and Island Development association, which will in future bear the name of the "Vacant Lands Improvement Committee," met at the offices.

Deputy Minister Scott, on behalf of the department of agriculture, promised the department's assistance in the matter and expressed his confidence in the proposal which had his hearty support. For years he had longed to see such a scheme introduced. He had pleasure in introducing Assistant Inspector Robertson, who had prepared a bulletin showing what could be done with city lots in the way of vegetable culture all the year round.

Professor McDonald, provincial livestock commissioner, also promised the cooperation of the department in the introduction of live stock into the province.

With regard to the marketing question Simon Leiser, whom the committee chose as permanent chairman, stated that just before the war started two prominent citizens had proposed to establish a large produce market, but the scheme had been deferred because of the disturbance to business conditions.

Lindley Crease, K. C., submitted drafts of agreements covering the lease of land, and also for the use of garden lots. These were discussed, and a special committee consisting of W. E. Scott, Dr. T. M. McCreedy, and Councillor Grant, of Saanich, was appointed to assist Mr. Crease, who is chairman of the legal committee.

After Mr. Leiser's remarks on the marketing of produce had been heard, the question was laid over, Luke Pither being named as chairman of the marketing committee.

The following cash prizes will be given for the town lots: 1, $50; 2, $40; 3, $30; 4, $20; 5, $15; 6, $10; 7, $5. The municipal council of Oak Bay, Saanich and Esquimalt will be asked to offer cash prizes in their districts, subject to the needs of local conditions.

The commissioner indicated that Manager Spencer, of the Bannan Bay experimental farm, had promised all assistance in his power.

A vote of thanks was tendered to Alderman Todd for introducing to the attention of the city council a resolution with regard to the gift of fertilizer to cultivators of vacant lots.

Those present at the meeting were: W. E. Scott, Dr. T. M. McCreedy, Councillors Grant and Borden, J. D. Reid, Luke Pither, W. H. Robertson, W. McLean, Lindley Crease, K. C., J. Layritz, Simon Leiser and Commissioner Cuthbert.

LIEUT. COLONEL COY
SUPPLIES 200 KILTS

Goes to Valcartier With Volunteer Contingent; Regiments Busy Recruiting

A shortage of equipment is being felt by the local militia regiment owing to the departure of about 600 men for the front. Inasmuch as a month ago there were not many more than 600 militiamen in Victoria, the equipment taken away by these men is missed and will be missed more and more as the regiments recruit up to strength again.

In the case of the Highlanders Hon. Lieut. Colonel Coy, who has gone east with the overseas contingent, has taken over the providing of 200 more kilts which were ordered from Scotland a few weeks ago and should soon be on their way. Since the outbreak of war Lieut. Colonel Coy has manifested a deep interest in the doings of the regiment which he so largely instrumental in founding and when it was reported to him that there might be delay in obtaining the new uniforms from Scotland he promptly announced that he would take over the responsibility for them and hasten their delivery as much as possible. Lieut. Colonel Coy spent much time in the Willows camp in uniform and took a deep interest in the personal welfare of the members of the 60th Highlanders and when the volunteers went to Valcartier yesterday it was no surprise to learn that he was among them.

Commanders of the three local regiments which sent detachments to Valcartier have announced their intention of bringing the battalions up to the strength again as rapidly as possible. Recruiting will take place at the Willows camp for the 50th Highlanders, at Work Point barracks and the Pemberton building for the 5th regiment, and at the Dockyard, Esquimalt, for the Fusiliers. Those applying to the 50th Highlanders should attend for medical examination at the Willows camp between 8 a. m. and 9 a. m., or 4 and 5 p. m. Over 500 men will be required to bring the regiments up to strength. It is estimated. The men will receive field service pay and will have a splendid chance to make themselves efficient in drill and rifle shooting so that they may go on the second Canadian contingent which will be sent probably within another month.

In addition Captain Young will proceed with the recruiting of a company of the Royal Canadian regiment to be garrisoned at Esquimalt. Little was done towards this during the period when the Canadian contingent was being recruited, but active steps will be taken now to organize a company of regular infantry to garrison this point.

Prior to their departure for Valcartier the volunteers from a company of the 50th Highlanders presented Captain Roberts, commander of the company, with a handsome silver cigarette case. Captain Roberts is now camp commandant at the Willows in place of Lieut. Colonel Currie.

Lieut. Colonel Hall has expressed the gratitude of the 88th regiment for the many gifts which have been made to it in camp. Woollen socks for the volunteers and field glasses for the scouts are among the presents received.

A patriotic offer is that of the firm of Green & Burdick Brothers, Ltd., to handle all business within its field of activities free of charge for the families of volunteers who have left Victoria for the front. The entire staff and equipment of the firm is placed at the disposal of these people.

Sir Richard and Lady McBride entertained the Japanese officers from H. I. M. S. Izumo at the Variety and Pantages theatres last evening. During the day the premier showed the officers through the Parliament buildings and other officials showed the men the museum and other points of interest in the legislative buildings.

The land of the 5th regiment has been ordered to parade at the Dockyard at 3.30 p. m., Sunday.

FETE DREW VISITORS

Sunshine Chapters' Garden Party at Residence of Mrs. Rattenbury Proved Successful.

This afternoon the Sunshine Chapter, I. O. O. E., was hostess at a charming garden fete in the beautiful grounds belonging to their regent, Mrs. Rattenbury, at Beach drive, which were gay with decorations of a most attractive character, and buzzing with visitors.

One of the conspicuous attractions of the event was the Japanese pagoda, where tea was served, the popular refreshment making the tables a favorite rendezvous with the visitors. An Italian boy, picturesque in the costume of Sunny Italy, wended his way in and out the throng with his dog-key, which carried a basket of paniers laden with sweet-smelling flowers which found a ready sale. A golden well was another of the attractions which the children love, and a delightful programme of dances was provided by members of the chapter. Miss Alma Bray, dressed in classical Grecian garments, and little Marjorie Spencer, with golden wings and dainty fluttering garments, gave some butterfly dances. Sheila Bickers evoked much applause by her recitation, in period costume, of a French poem. A minuet, danced by some of the tiny folk, was one of the prettiest group features of the proceedings, and a dainty flower dance was also much admired.

Every pause in the proceedings was filled in with sweet music, Miss Thain's orchestra supplying artistic selections suited to the outdoor character of the event, which should bring to its organizers a profitable sum for the furtherance of their plan to help the less fortunate little people of the city.

The fete will remain open until 6 this afternoon.

DIES AT SIXTY TWO WAS EARLY RESIDENT

Mrs. Mary Williams, Born on Ship Norman Morrison, Lived Here Since 1852

The death of Mrs. Mary Williams, of 9 Dupplin road, which occurred last evening, recalls to many familiar with the history of the city the good ship Norman Morrison, which came out from England in 1852, as it was on this vessel that Mary Cheeseman, as she was afterwards christened, was born. The first child of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cheeseman, who came out in that year from Kent, England, she lived in the Saanich Peninsula from the time she landed with them in Victoria, ending her days almost where her first conscious impressions were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Cheeseman and their small daughter remained but a short time in the city before establishing themselves on their ranch on the West Saanich road, about seven miles out of Victoria, in the Royal Oak district. Here the remainder of the family were born, among those still surviving being three daughters. Later Mr. Cheeseman took over the Royal Oak hotel, and there the family lived for a number of years.

Sixty-two years of age at the time of her death, Mrs. Williams, who was the widow of the late William Henry Williams, was one of the earliest residents of the peninsula, and her husband one of the pioneer farmers in the North Saanich district. From the North Saanich district Mr. and Mrs. Williams removed to the Lake district, the change to Victoria being very recent, only about four months ago. Among surviving residents who came out on the Norman Morrison in 1852 is a brother-in-law of the deceased lady, Edward Williams, who resides at Green street, this city.

Four daughters, Mrs. J. Clark, Mrs. T. Mould, Mrs. C. Heal, and Miss B. Williams survive, as well as four sons, William, Pierce, Richard and Arthur. The following sisters also survive: Mrs. William Snyder, of Vancouver; Mrs. L. Duval and Mrs. J. Goyette, both of Luke Hill district.

The funeral will take place from the late residence on Monday afternoon at 2.15, and at 3 o'clock from St. Luke's church, Cedar Hill.

BURIED TO-DAY

Late James Muirhead's Funeral Held This Afternoon; Deceased Lived for Two Years in Peru.

The funeral of the late James Muirhead, whose death occurred on Tuesday evening at the late residence, Esquimalt road, took place at 2.30 this afternoon, a large number of old settlers and business men of the city being present at the services, and the numerous flowers testifying to the wide esteem in which the deceased man was held.

The late Mr. Muirhead lived in Ontario for two years before coming to the Pacific coast, and made his way to New York, thence to New Orleans, and from that city to Peru, where he spent two years. It was in 1882 that he came to Victoria, and he was among the early miners who went into the Cariboo district. Not long afterwards, however, he decided to throw up mining and went into the lumber manufacturing business here, among some of his earlier undertakings being the building of the penitentiary at New Westminster.

NORTH WARD OPENS

Certificates for Perfect Attendance Presented; Visitors Address Pupils.

The North Ward School opening was held yesterday afternoon, J. M. Campbell, the principal, presiding as chairman, and others present at the proceedings including Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Justin Gilbert, Mrs. Hibben, and Mrs. P. J. Riddell, wife of Trustee Riddell.

The auditorium was smartly decorated with flags, and with the bright faces of the children, presented a very interesting appearance to the visitors. On the platform a bank of roses and dahlias contributed to the festive appearance of the room, and the singing shield won by the children in the competition of last April was given a conspicuous position in the decorations. The programme, which included a number of excellently-rendered musical numbers commencing with the Canadian anthem, "O Canada," contained several entertaining items, chief among which was the presentation of the twelve certificates given for perfect attendance at school during the school year. Among the speakers were Mrs. Hibben, Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. Riddell. The National Anthem concluded the proceedings.

Friendly Help.—The monthly meeting of the Friendly Help Association will be held next Tuesday at 11 a. m. at the Market building, Cormorant street.

TELEPHONE MATTER
TO HAVE ATTENTION

Aldermen Will Also Decide What City Will Do for Men on Duty

Present indications are that there will not be a very large programme for the meeting of the city council on Monday evening. City Solicitor Robertson will confer with E. V. Bodwell, K. C., on Monday, and a report on the application of the B. C. Telephone company to have an additional $25,000 worth of debentures issued to it under the terms of the agreement of 1911 will be submitted for the advice of the council.

As Monday is the last day of the month, the day on which the temporary arrangement with regard to the payment of civil service men engaged with the Canadian contingent or on patrol duty will expire, the finance committee of the city council intends to take the subject up and discuss it with a view to arriving at a decision so that the dependents of those who are serving the empire may not suffer at this time of stress. No answer has yet been received to the message sent to the department of militia with regard to the payment of two-thirds of the earnings of volunteers in active service to their dependents.

The council members will take a prominent share in the entertainment of the visiting members of the Pacific Coast Fire Chiefs' association, who will hold a convention here during the week. The visitors will arrive here on Monday, headed by Past President Chief Shrewsbury, of Long Beach, Cal.

At the meeting of the city council on Monday a resolution will be adopted fixing the assessment of owners for the Pendergast street improvement, which is larger because the owners held that they were being unjustly treated about the apportionment of the assessment. They claimed that the figures bore too heavily on a few owners, instead of being spread over all property in the district benefiting by the improvement.

Tenders will be opened for the Point Ellice bridge repairs.

Notice is given of a court of Revision on Sept. 12 to close up a number of local improvement works on Fairfield road, Burnside road and Denman street. The Fairfield road assessments had been held over for the completion of work to be initiated this year, but the owners having protested against any action in 1914 there is no use in delaying action on the assessment.

OBITUARY RECORD

Mrs. J. B. Brown, of 2332 Willows road, has just received the sad news of the death of her mother, Mrs. Jane Young, of Glasgow, Scotland. The late Mrs. Young was born at Kilmarnock, Ayrshire, Scotland, a year ago, and was the widow of her late husband and one son residing in Glasgow, two daughters, Mrs. D. Bain, of Nanaimo, Alberta, and Mrs. J. B. Brown, of this city, and five grandchildren. The late Mrs. Young resided here with her daughter for two years, returning to her native Scotland in July. She was a member of St. Columba church, Oak Bay.

The death occurred suddenly this morning of John Niprud Race, the deceased, who passed away at the age of 69 at the Victoria hospital, and had been in the hospital for the past few years. Formerly he was inspector of mounted police, Liverpool, England, where he was married to his wife, who died in 1908. The remains are at the Hanna-Thomson parlors from which place the funeral will take place at a date still to be arranged.

The remains of the late John McKay, whose death occurred on Monday, at the Victoria hospital, arrived this morning at the B. C. Funeral parlors, where the funeral is being held this afternoon at 2.30. Rev. Dr. Day officiating.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Emily Noel, wife of Capt. J. B. Noel, of 28 Stanley avenue, will take place on Monday morning at 11 o'clock, where the Rev. E. G. Miles will conduct the services. Interment will be in the family plot, Ross Bay.

The death occurred yesterday at the Royal Jubilee hospital of Marion Isabel Stewart, the three-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stewart, of Pendergast road. The funeral will take place Monday afternoon from the chapel of the Sands Funeral Parlor, at 2 o'clock. Rev. J. McKay will officiate.

The funeral of the late Fong Poo, who died on August 26, will take place tomorrow afternoon from the Hanna-Thomson parlors at 2 o'clock. The deceased is survived by his wife and five children in Canton, China. Interment will be in the Chinese cemetery.

Local Council of Women.—There will be a special meeting of the Local Council of Women at 2.30 on Tuesday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. rest room, at which the employment of women at this critical time will be considered.

King's Daughters.—The monthly business meeting of the King's Daughters will be held in the rest room, Courtney street, on Wednesday morning, Sept. 2, at 10.30. All members are requested to attend.

Many friends of Miss M. E. La Page will be pleased to hear the news of her recovery from her recent serious illness.

Miss Mary Hamilton is now living with Mrs. Hilderbrandt at 423 Powell street, near Michigan street.

WILL CONSIDER FOUR
BY-LAWS TUESDAY

Saanich Council Will Submit By-law to Ratify Agreement for Purchase of Water

It is the intention of the members of the Saanich council to pass through, after the meeting of the works committee of the council on Tuesday, the four by-laws which have been under discussion for some time. They are the measures for the three debenture issues of $775,000 for water, $450,000 for paving (to which the government contributes $100,000), and $50,000 for schools, and the by-law to ratify an agreement with the city for the purchase of water in bulk from the city as soon as the Sooke waterworks is completed.

The agreement in this last matter is under preparation by the city solicitor to-day so that it may be approved by the council on Monday and be passed on to the district municipality on the following evening.

The possibility of submitting the paving by-law has been discussed by the council with President Warren, of the Warren Construction company, the principal contractors under the old by-law, not to proceed with the work till the debentures authorized have been sold. No arrangement on the matter has been made by the council yet with the Worswick company, which has commenced a cut on the matter claiming breach of contract. However, it is not the intention to pave Mount Tolmie and Cedar Hill roads, which were specified under the latter contract; but one half of Shelbourne street only, which would not carry the new road as far as Mount Douglas park under the present proposal. The main Saanich road from Douglas street to Quadra street junction has been cut out of the proposed paving, and the paving along Carey road will terminate at Alford avenue. This latter road was embraced in the Warren company's contract.

It is stated that no schedule will be attached to the by-law defining the roads to be covered in the by-law, because the council is advised that the difficulty of selling the debentures would be considerably increased thereby.

The tax notices for the municipality, with announcement of the rebate till October 31, have now been issued to owners of property in the municipality. It is known what percentage of taxes will be collected, the council will curtail its expenditure as far as possible.

VICTORIA STARTED
BADLY IN THE FINAL

All Out for 109 in Deciding Game of Tournament; Brilliant Wicket-Keeping

The final match in the Pacific Coast tournament between Victoria and Esquimalt was commenced this morning at the Jubilee hospital grounds shortly after 10 o'clock.

Victoria going in to bat, Victoria opened the innings with Martin and Booth, the former being caught in the slips off O'Connell's bowling. For 30, W. Wright was bowled by Bagnall, and after making 5 was bowled by a shoulder from Bagnall, 12 for 30. The rest of the innings was a struggle, but the total was 109. Bagnall bowled splendidly, only one bye being recorded.

The bowling of Bagnall and Estridge was excellent, the former taking most wickets, 3 for 25; Estridge, 3 for 15; Orr 2 for 18 runs.

SUNDAY BAND CONCERT.

Fifth Regiment Musicians Will Provide Music at Beacon Hill Park To-morrow.

The Fifth Regiment band will play the following programme at Beacon Hill to-morrow afternoon, starting at 2 o'clock: March—Military; Scherzo—Schubert; Overture—Tannhauser; Russian Selection—Mikado; Slr A. Sullivan Gavotte—Alta; Slr A. Sullivan Selection—Tannhauser; Slr A. Sullivan Selection—Tannhauser; Slr A. Sullivan Selection—Tannhauser.

Will Remove Children.—It is understood that the older children at the Protestant Orphanage school will be moved to Quadra Street school on account of overcrowding.

Troops in Moving Pictures.—The departure of the men of the 50th Highlanders and the 88th Fusiliers for Valcartier and the front yesterday supplied an excellent opportunity for the moving-picture camera men. So that there would be a record of this event in the life of Victoria, the Capital Film company took over 600 feet of motion pictures of the troops as they marched through the streets and as they boarded the steamer at the wharf. Hurrying the films through the developing process, the operators had them ready for viewing at the Variety theatre last evening, where many citizens saw them. They are to be repeated this evening and for three days next week, so that Victorians may see in moving-picture form the men who went from this city.

DIED

NOEL.—On August 26, 1914, suddenly, at the residence, 225 Stanley avenue, Emily, beloved wife of Captain J. F. Noel, aged 66 years, born at Harbor Grace, Newfoundland.

URGES EXTENSION OF CITY NIGHT SCHOOLS

Inspector Kyle Offers Suggestions to Trustees; Details of Cost of Operation

The city school board yesterday afternoon heard the new inspector of continuation of schools, John Kyle, on the night school movement.

He advocates the development of the efforts made last year when the classes were commenced here.

He pointed out how necessary it was to make the classes attractive and to have the instruction given by practical men. The night school work was a step, but what the country must come to was the real continuation school. It would continue after school days the real education, and the really serious work. There were a great many children passing through the schools, who had not been properly educated. Sooner or later the country must follow the question to its logical conclusion and compel to attend continuation schools those children whose prior education was defective.

The board referred the matter to a committee composed of Mrs. Gilbert, Major Riddell and Dr. Hall.

Mr. Kyle stated that he had made a study of the situation in the province, and had examined various existing facilities in the way of workshops, manual training departments, etc., and had met the different trades and labor councils on the matter.

He pointed out that the High school provided a splendid foundation for the work, and it was an institution which was not in use in the evenings. For an amount from $2,000 to $3,000 the necessary alteration could be carried out. The government would contribute two-fifths of the cost of equipment. He recommended the appointment of advisory committees composed of practical men in various trades, to co-operate with the school board, not to supplant it. After a careful consideration of the circumstances in this city he had found men associated with various industries in the town who would give practical instruction, and men who could give the requisite information.

He had drawn up a programme of 25 subjects, and had worked out the cost. The salaries would amount for $3,629 for three months, including a director of night schools, who would be desirable. Added to the cost of salaries, he had figured on $4,929, with equipment and advertising in addition.

Of that sum, he said, the government would contribute $1,970, leaving $2,959 to be found by the board.

It was pointed out that the grant would go to the city, and some amount would have to be paid direct to the board if the offer was to be taken advantage of.

Mrs. Jenkins, the acting chairman, observed that the board's estimate provided for $3,000.

The secretary doubted if there would be as much as that sum available this year from the funds.

A number of questions were asked by members of the board with regard to questions of administration, and the salaries to be paid instructors.

The board eventually determined to meet on Monday afternoon, to hear a report from the committee now appointed, which will hold a session earlier in the day.

Whatever name you call a government grant, it is but a glorified dole.—Mr. Handal Booth, M. P.
